

Beacon Light Honors Joyce with STAR Award

Pictured above: Beacon Light Behavioral Health System's President/CEO, Rick Seager presented Steve Joyce with this year's annual STAR award for service above and beyond expectations at a luncheon held January 18th. Joyce was named the monthly STAR award winner in June of 2009 for his work with the Bradford RTF, and won the annual award among all monthly winners.

"Steve displays the professional qualities that make Beacon Light so successful," said VP for Program Evaluation, Becky Jensen.

"He truly deserves this award and so much more," she added.

Joyce began with the agency in 2001, and has progressively taken on greater levels of responsibility. Most recently he took on the role of case manager for Port Allegany's Bridgeport Academy. The STAR award was developed by Beacon Light's Quality

Council to recognize those staff that go the extra mile, or who exceed the expectations of their employment. Nominations come from co-workers, supervisors and families that the agency serves. Beacon Light is a 501(c)(3), not for profit, social services agency that provides a complete continuum of care to children, adolescents and families from across the commonwealth. More information can be obtained from their website at www.beacon-light.org.