

Gesing Named to Beacon Light Senior Management Team

Administrators at Beacon Light Behavioral Health Systems, headquartered in Bradford, PA, announced last week that Jennifer A Gesing had been promoted to the agency's Senior Management Team. Gesing will be responsible for oversight of the agency's Community Programs Division which provides direct care services to children in Warren, and Forest counties.

Gesing holds a Bachelor of Arts in Communications from Slippery Rock University, an MS Ed in Community Counseling from St. Bonaventure University and is currently in progress with her Master's in Business Administration through Gannon University.

Gesing began with the agency in 1995 as a mental health technician before being promoted to residential manager in 1997. She also worked as a therapeutic support staff at this time. In 2002 she became a residential treatment coordinator, and in 2004 moved to Warren county where she assumed the role of program administrator. Since 2007 she has directed the Family Based Mental Health, Outpatient, and Community Based Services Programs for Warren and Forest Counties.

Gesing lives in Bear Lake, PA with her husband Matt and her two children, Aniela and Julia.
