

Staff and students of Beacon Light Behavioral Health Systems used the Columbus Day school holiday to begin preparing for this year's Holiday Season. Beacon Light will be the new home of the "Christmas House", following a donation last year. This year's display will feature a variety of attractions, including Santa's House, live characters and thousands of lights set to music.