Program Description

Beacon Light Academy is a private academic licensed school serving students that require special education services and supports. The Academy currently serves students in grades 3 -12 with disabilities in the areas of Autism, Learning Disabled, Emotionally Disturbed, Intellectually Disabled and Speech and Language Disabled. Classrooms are broken down into groups based on types of support: Emotional Support secondary grades 9-12, Learning Support secondary grades 9-12, Life Skills Support secondary grades 7-12, and Autistic Support grades 3-12.

- The private licensed program can serve up to 40 students.
- Pennsylvania certified teachers provide instruction in all core content areas.
- A teacher and support staff are present during all classes to assist with classroom management.

Referral Process

For students to attend the Beacon Light Academy, they need to be referred by an administrator of their current residential school district.

Administrators interested in referring students to the Beacon Light Academy need to contact the Director of Education. Program availability and questions regarding reason for referral will be discussed to determine if the Beacon Light Academy can meet the students' needs.
